

KILLS HUSBAND; CONFESSES CRIME

Mrs. J. F. Gwaltney Held by Coroner for Lunenburg
Grand Jury.

BELIEVED TO BE INSANE

Had Been Inmate of Asylum and Was Discharged as Well.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Kenbridge, Va., October 16.—J. F. Gwaltney, manager of the Lunenburg Training School, was shot and instantly killed by his wife yesterday morning, the tragedy having occurred at the home of Mrs. Gwaltney, across the street from the Presbyterian Church, where services were in progress. Mrs. Gwaltney, having rooms in that house, Mrs. Gwaltney, just a few hours before she fired the fatal shot, had returned from Petersburg, where she formerly resided, and where she recently went to stay with relatives.

Following the tragedy, after Coroner J. T. Tidwell had impounded a jury to hold an inquest, Mrs. Gwaltney, who confessed to the shooting, she will be held for the grand jury of Lunenburg county, which meets again in January.

When arrested Mrs. Gwaltney declared that she came from Petersburg with the determination to kill her husband, who she said had not been as attentive to her as she thought he should be. It is generally believed that the woman's mind is affected, as she was formerly an inmate of an insane asylum, having been discharged as well several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwaltney came to Kenbridge from Petersburg about twelve months ago, and appeared to live happily until a short time ago, when Mrs. Gwaltney went to Petersburg to live.

She came to Kenbridge on Saturday evening and spent several hours with her husband. She sent for him to come to see her yesterday morning, and after they had been together in a room for only a few minutes a shot was heard. Investigation revealed that Mrs. Gwaltney stretched on the floor dead and his wife in a swoon on a sofa, her arrest and confession then followed.

Remains Taken to Waverly

The body of Jasper P. Gwaltney, who was shot and killed by his wife at Kenbridge, in Lunenburg county, yesterday, was taken through to Waverly this afternoon for burial. He was the son of B. F. Gwaltney, of Surry, some five or six years ago he married Miss Hobbs, daughter of Joseph Hobbs, of Prince George county, a very pretty and attractive young woman. They subsequently came to Petersburg to live.

About four years ago Mrs. Gwaltney's infant died under circumstances which indicated violence, or poison at the hands of the mother, who also attempted suicide at the same time. She was arrested and put in jail, was subsequently declared insane, and was sent to a hospital, from which she was discharged as restored.

Husband and wife again lived together, but a few months ago an estrangement arose between them and they separated. Mr. Gwaltney went to Kenbridge, where he accepted a situation, and went up to Kenbridge and the shooting occurred yesterday.

Address to Bankers

Edward James Caffery, chief of the bureau of statistics and statistics of the city of Philadelphia, will speak to-morrow night at 8:30 o'clock at the opening smoker of the session of the Richmond Chapter, American Institute of Banking. The occasion will be an informal affair, and invitations to the present have been extended not only to chapter members, but to all bank men in the city.

SOUTHSIDE FAIR WILL OPEN TO-DAY

Everything in Order, and Premium List Will Be Unusually Liberal.

DELEGATES TO REUNION

Veterans Will Go to Newport News—Man Falls Through Elevator Shaft.

(Times-Dispatch Bureau.)
Petersburg, Va., October 16.—The fair of the Southside Agricultural Association will open to-morrow, to be held in Newport News this city, and even on the first day the attendance is expected to be very large. Everything will be in order by last night. The premium list of the fair aggregates $15,000 in premiums, many of the awards being very liberal. The management of the fair have labored long and hard to make the exhibition a great success, and their labors have met with the most generous response. The people of the Southside counties have taken pride in the exhibition, and are supporting it in every possible way.

Delegates to Reunion

The delegates from Petersburg to the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans, the Virginia Division, United Confederate Veterans, and the Grand Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, to be held in Newport News this city, will leave for that city to-morrow. A strong delegation will go from each of these organizations, a full list of which has been published in The Times-Dispatch. They will take part in the parade to-morrow afternoon.

Contract Awarded

The contract for furnishing the structural steel to be used in the seven-story building to be erected by the Benevolent Mechanics' Association was awarded to-day. The old Mechanics' Building, at the corner of Sycamore and West Tenth Streets, has almost been leveled to the street, and the debris has been removed so rapidly that little or no inconvenience has been caused to the public.

Fall Through Hatchways

John J. Linnahan, a well-known merchant, doing business on Harrison Street, while at the store of T. F. Heath & Co., Old Street, to-day, on business, fell through the elevator shaft from one floor to another, and sustained severe injuries. One of his shoulders was dislocated, some of his ribs fractured, and he was considerably bruised and shocked. He was taken to his home on South Sycamore Street, where he was attended by Dr. Burke.

Death of Former Petersburg

Information has been received of the sudden death of Mrs. J. C. Craig, formerly of Petersburg, and well known here, which occurred at her home in Gilbert, S. C., on September 28. The remains were laid to rest at her old home in Sumter, S. C.

All-Day Rally

The annual rally of High Street M. E. Church yesterday proved a big success. There were three services—morning, afternoon and night—at all of which the attendance was large. The program was varied and attractive, and the services were given by Misses Catherine Smith, Louise Talbot, Dorothy Allgood and Blanche O'Kennon, and by Master Charles Sharp.

The welcome chorus was sung by eight young women, and fine vocal and instrumental music was a feature of the delightful recitations were given by Misses Catherine Smith, Louise Talbot, Dorothy Allgood and Blanche O'Kennon, and by Master Charles Sharp.

APPROVED WASH'S DEED

Jury Acquits Man Who Shot Despoiler of His Home.

Carlinville, Ill., October 16.—John W. Wash, acquitted here Saturday of the murder of George Clarence Martin, whom he shot to death for despoiling his home, will become reconciled to Mrs. Wash.

"I have a certain Christian duty toward my wife, and I expect to live up to it," he told a reporter. "Doubtless I will be criticized for it, but I don't care about that."

Wash expects to move to Greene county, Ky., where he was reared. He has sold his store and home in Palmyra, where the killing occurred. After the trial Charles Butler, a juror, expressed approval of Wash's conduct, amid assenting nods from other jurors gathered about.

GIBBONS DAY CELEBRATED

Thousands March in Baltimore in Honor of Cardinal.

Baltimore, Md., October 16.—With the hierarchy from every part of the United States, Cardinal Gibbons, with the apostolic delegate, Monsignor Falconio, riding alongside the cardinal, to-day Baltimore was given over to the celebration of "Gibbons Day." It was the fiftieth anniversary of his ascension to the priesthood, and his twenty-fifth anniversary as cardinal.

The greatest feature of the parade was the participation of more than 1,000 women representing various religious societies.

Among the marchers were seventy-five young women, fifty wearing gold sashes which represented the cardinal's fiftieth year as a priest and his twenty-fifth year as the primate of the See of America.

PREACHER GETS $500,000

Rev. Richard Garten Then Decides to Leave Pulpit.

St. Louis, October 16.—From a poor supply preacher to small Baptist churches near Alton, Ill., the Rev. Richard Garten has become a millionaire. He has notified the congregations he used to serve that he will preach no more.

Mr. Garten, who is sixty, was summoned, with his wife and family, to Los Angeles two months ago by the illness of Mrs. Garten's brother, William Summers. He returned to Alton with the news that his brother-in-law had died and left him and his wife a large sum of money, valued at more than $500,000. He said that he was obliged to devote himself to the rest of his life to caring for his property.

1000 Hull Street.
Phone Station 115.

By an ordinance signed Saturday by Mayor Richardson, the Hull Street bridge, which is to be widened, will be closed to traffic for a period of ten days, beginning on Monday. The street at this point is in a very bad condition, and it is expected that the widening will be completed by the end of the month.

The creation of a tobacco factory, planned by Larus Brothers & Co., to be located between Fifth and Sixth on Blairbridge Street, is expected to be started shortly, as an ordinance permitting the company to open an alley on the property has been signed by Mayor Richardson.

Other ordinances affecting the Southside are as follows:
Ordinance authorizing the appointment of a keeper for Washington Park, who will also serve as janitor of Hastings Court, at a salary of $100 per annum.
Ordinance permitting the Standard Oil Company to maintain certain pipe lines under streets, connecting branches of its plant.

Laughter, loud and continuous, greeted the first performance of "Mrs. Briggs," the Poultry Farm, given by local talent last night at the opening of the big bazaar for the benefit of Washington Camp, No. 1, P. O. of S. A. Bazaar.

The case without exception is to be continued. A similar case, involving a slip was given. Not a single actor forgot the lines, and each without the least hesitation displayed by local talent. Special mention is due Miss Hattie Ellis as "Mrs. Briggs," and A. C. Burke as "Mr. O'Connor," and his makeup was perfect, and his makeup was perfect.

To-night another large program has been arranged. Among the attractions are "Beautiful Moonlight," by Mrs. W. E. Burton; "Sweet and Low," by Edward Burton; "Sweet and Low," by Edward Burton; "Sweet and Low," by Edward Burton.

A wedding of local interest in South Richmond people will take place Wednesday, October 18, in the Methodist Church, when Miss Laura Simpson, daughter of Rev. James William Stiff, becomes the bride of Mr. John H. Trivett.

Miss Alice is well known to the Southside, where she made her home with her father, who was formerly a pastor of the West End Baptist Church. She is a well known young business woman, living on the Southside. She is connected with the traveling salesman with a large family.

HIS BUSY DAY

Dr. Crowder Called on to Attend Sick and Afflicted.

Dr. Crowder, of the city ambulance, was called yesterday to attend Joseph Scott, colored, who fell from a lot of hay in front of 113 East Marshall Street. He dislocated his left wrist and broke his left arm. He was taken to his home at 806 North Ninth Street.

P. W. Howard, an employee at Dold's factory, at Seventh and Broad Streets, was struck by some machinery, and two teeth knocked out, besides having his lower lip badly cut. He was taken to the City Hospital by Dr. Crowder.

On Short Twelfth Street yesterday afternoon Howard Lin, a twelve-year-old colored boy, fell from a dump cart. A wheel ran over him, and his left thigh was broken. He was taken to the City Hospital.

Julius Miller, colored, suffered a bad accident at Seventh and Stockton Streets, yesterday, when he was struck by a wheel. He was taken to the City Hospital.

Pennant Records of Mack and McGraw

MACK has won four pennants for Philadelphia and one world's series. Won in 1902, 1903, 1910 and 1911. McGRAW has won three pennants for New York and one world's series. Won the flag in 1904, 1905 and 1911. Since 1903 has never finished below third place. Has always been in the fight since reorganizing the old Giant squad. But for a technicality would have won four pennants in the last eight years.

MONDY GETS DIVORCE

Virginia Decree Against District of Columbia Citizen Held Void.

Washington, October 16.—Holding that a Virginia divorce decree obtained against a district of Columbia citizen by publication is void in that jurisdiction, Justice Dan Thew Wright, in the District Supreme Court, to-day granted an appeal from John L. Moudy from Annie E. Moudy.

Making the case more unique is the fact that the correspondent named by Moudy was Edmund C. King, to whom Mrs. Moudy was married about a month after obtaining the Virginia decree, and that the misconduct was alleged to have occurred subsequent to this second marriage. It was the court's contention that the second marriage was null and void, and therefore the supposed husband properly could be a correspondent.

The Moudys were married more than thirty years ago in Pennsylvania and have six living children, four daughters and two sons. Mrs. Moudy is fifty years old, while Moudy is several years her senior.

BIG COMMITTEE TO GREEN HARMON

Ohio Governor Will Be Given Royal Reception in North Carolina.

LEAK CASE UP FOR ARGUMENT

National Guard Officers Return From Buffalo—Charter by State.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Raleigh, N. C., October 16.—It has not been known whether or not it will be possible for Governor Harmon, of Ohio, to reach Raleigh Tuesday afternoon instead of Wednesday morning. He has promised to advance his schedule that much if he possibly can. The reception committee of 200 and more citizens, headed by General J. S. Carr, is to be here in full force Wednesday, and as many as possible are coming on Tuesday, so as to be here to receive Harmon that evening. In the event he is able to get in there, the special purpose of this quickening of his schedule is to have him present for the dedication of the splendid new Raleigh Auditorium.

Few people of the State who have not seen the splendid building have any adequate conception of the proportions of the great auditorium that Raleigh is dedicating to the service of the city and the State this week. It has 110 feet frontage, on Davis Street, with three big entrances to the foyer. Then on Wilmington Street there is a grand entrance. The auditorium is pronounced perfect, and 5,000 or more people can be seated. Big events are scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, the last being the ball for the State Fair, an affair that is planned in an especially elaborate manner.

Gaston Stafford, superintendent of the North Carolina State Fair Grounds, has just suffered a stroke of paralysis that makes his condition very precarious. He is seventy-one years old, and there is no hope for his recovery.

When the Eighth District appeals are called for argument in the Supreme Court Tuesday morning the case of State vs. Leak will be first up for argument, this being an appeal from a sentence of five years in the penitentiary for assault on the twelve-year-old daughter of a well-to-do citizen of Richmond, in Richmond county, by whom he was employed to work about the house for the day. Assistant Attorney-General G. L. Jones will make the argument for the State. The other appeals, all civil suits, are: Wilkes vs. Miller, Richardson vs. Edwards, Field vs. Hunum, Sanders vs. Sanders, Jones vs. Huxley, and others.

Currie vs. Railway, Dalrymple vs. Cole, Austin vs. Lewis, Dorsett vs. Railroad, Sinclair vs. Teal, A. and R. R. Co. vs. Seaboard, and others.

Adjutant-General R. L. Leinster, of the North Carolina National Guard and the half-dozen North Carolina National Guard Association, who have returned from Buffalo, N. Y., where they were in the session of the National Guard Association.

They made a number of side trips before returning.

There was a charter issued to-day for the 11th Realty Co., Charlotte, capital $125,000, by T. J. Gattis, L. J. Hunter and others, for general real estate development.

This morning in a negro settlement near the Southern freight depot Jack Brown, colored, was shot by John Preston, who made his escape.

Sheriff John Sprinkle brought to the penitentiary to-day from Davie county two negroes charged with murder. Spencer James, colored, is to serve thirty years for second degree murder, and Julius Claywell, white, is to serve three years as an accessory to the murder.

This Simple Powder Quickly Removes Hairs

(From Boudoir Secrets.)

No pain or unpleasant after effects follow the use of this simple powder for the removal of hairs from the skin's surface, and persons afflicted with superfluous growths can quickly remove them with privacy in their own room in a very few minutes.

Get an original package of delatone, and with a little water mix enough of the powder to serve as a paste, and care the hair surface. Let this paste remain on for two or three minutes; then rub off and wash the skin, and the hair will fall out. The delatone costs a dollar an ounce, but is unfailing for removing hairy growths and preventing others coming. After development, the skin is left smooth, white and firm.

GLIDDEN TOUR PRESS CAR IS DEMOLISHED

Top Prevents It From Turning Turtle, and Saves Occupants From Injury—Party Indignant Over Treatment at Harrisonburg.

Winchester, Va., October 16.—The official press car, entered in the Glidden tour by S. D. Britzen, of Brookings, S. D., and occupied by Mr. Britzen, E. L. Ferguson and H. A. Burchell, of the New York Times, and R. E. Anderson, was completely demolished near Charlottesville, Va., to-day, in endeavoring to make a short turn the brakes refused to work. The car went into a ditch and then crashed into a telephone pole with terrific force, smashing the pole flat to the earth. The car fell upon its left side and the occupants were thrown from the wreckage, saving the occupants from injury.

Starter Ferguson was brought to Winchester in the next car, belonging to C. H. Jackson, of Atlanta.

Governor W. E. Glasscock, of West Virginia, joined Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia, at Hagerstown, and got in with him through the Virginia Valley, and thence to Richmond to speak at the annual convention of the Atlantic Deep-sea Waterways Association. Half-bushel baskets of fancy apples from the big orchards of Frederick county were presented to each car by the Business Men's Association of Winchester.

Held Up at Harrisonburg.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Staunton, Va., October 16.—The seventy-five cars of the Glidden tour arrived here between 4 and 5 o'clock. The party is very indignant over treatment received at Harrisonburg, where a dozen cars were held up, but were finally allowed to proceed. They were charged with exceeding the speed limit. They claim a policeman flashed a revolver in their faces.

Staunton extended a hearty welcome to the Stonewall Brigade Band giving a concert in honor of the tourists and local automobilists and business men a smoker. Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia, who has been with the party since leaving New York, leaves this morning for Washington. The boys began in the evening Harrisonburg fined four cars, and telephoned the amount of the fine to the Staunton Chief of Police, who advised Harrisonburg that he cannot identify the men or cars.

FAIR AT DANVILLE WILL OPEN TO-DAY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Danville, Va., October 16.—Hundreds here have been laboring unceasingly all day for the fair grounds to-day and to-morrow. The fair is still going on making ready for the fair, whose gates swing open to-morrow morning to admit the hundreds of visitors who have reached the city for the annual event.

All of the buildings have been put thoroughly in order and are filled with exhibits of various kinds. The merchants, agricultural and women's buildings are crowded to the very doors with various articles, which have been entered for premiums. The cattle exhibit this year will be the first one with various articles, which was recently exhibited at Richmond and is shown.

The midway will be full of high-class shows, and the free shows will be better than formerly. A feature of the fair will be the fireworks display.

UNABLE TO REMEMBER
Witness Not Positive When Questioned Regarding Lorimer Election.
Chicago, October 16.—William C. Blair, a member of the Illinois Legislature that elected Senator Lorimer after remaining in the custody of a friend sworn in as a deputy sergeant-at-arms since Saturday, this morning resumed his testimony before the Dillingham investigating committee. He is the first one of the intimate friends of Representative Timpani, who was leader of one Democratic faction in the Legislature, to be called before the committee.

Attorney Healey examined Blair regarding his professional accounts and books, and asked him to forward these accounts for the year 1909 to the committee.

Blair was then interrogated in connection with the ball game episode at Centennial, Ill., in August, 1909, when it was charged he exhibited eleven $100 bills in addition to other money.

"Did you go from Mount Vernon to Centennial?"
"Yes."
"Did you tell A. C. Tanner that you came to Centennial from Olney, Ill., on the day of that ball game?"
"I don't think so."
"Had you been in Olney or Oden since the adjournment of the Legislature in 1907?"
"I don't think so."
"Are you sure of that?"
"That is my best recollection."
"Would you swear that you spent the night before the Centennial ball game at your home in Mount Vernon?"
"I am not certain."
